Course Identification Numbering System (C-ID)

C-ID Newsletter

Greetings! We welcome you all to the 2021-22 academic year. We wish you all a fantastic Fall 2021 semester as we continue to work together toward a better and brighter future for CCC and CSU students!

C-ID Updates

Faculty Input Needed – Ethnic Studies TMCs & Descriptors

In spring 2021 C-ID held three Discipline Input Group (DIG) meetings February 26, March 25, and April 23 for consideration and possible development of C-ID descriptors and a Transfer Model Curriculum (TMC) in Ethnic Studies. The meeting outcomes resulted in the development of a draft Area of Emphasis TMC and draft C-ID Descriptors in Ethnic Studies.

We are now calling for feedback on the draft Area of Emphasis TMC in Comparative Ethnic Studies along with TMCs in African American Studies, Asian American Studies, Chicana and Chicano Studies, and Native American Studies. In addition, C-ID descriptors were developed to support each TMC.

Please see the survey links below. The survey is due September 30th.

Course Modality Poll

C-ID has been asked whether instructional modality (under non-emergency circumstances) will affect C-ID articulation decisions. As a reminder, C-ID articulation is separate from General Education (GE) articulation. For intersegmental articulations, C-ID is on par with course-to-course major articulations, and the course outlines submitted to C-ID are also sent to CSU and UC for articulation decisions.

To gauge the importance of instructional modality for major preparation, C-ID is asking FDRGs to respond to a brief survey on the topic. Depending on the responses received, C-ID may arrange for FDRGs to meet and discuss the outcomes of this survey and potentially develop plans to review and revise C-ID descriptors. If the FDRG is considering revisions, we will send follow-up communication to affected disciplines.

Join us this November to attend impactful breakout sessions, discuss statewide matters, vote on important Resolutions, and network both virtually and in-person with faculty across our system.

Due to social distancing guidelines, the registration for the in-person portion is capped at 150 attendees. Each college will be reserved one in-person registration and will have unlimited spots for the virtual portion. Please coordinate with your campus to determine who will attend the in-person session prior to registering. If your college would like to send additional representatives to the in-person part of the event, email events@asccc.org as soon as possible to get on the waitlist. Additional open registration spots will be given to the college on a first-come, first-served basis.

Should you have any questions, please contact events@asccc.org.

ASCCC Academic Academy

The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges invites you to the 2021 Academic Academy! This year's Academic Academy will be held virtually October 7-8, 2021. The theme is Enhancing Transfer in the Higher Education System. Join us for topics that cover the student experience, transfer requirements, and the faculty role. You don't want to miss this engaging event! Register on the Academic Academy webpage today!

Discipline Updates

Business 2.0 TMC

In Spring 2019, the Business Administration Faculty Discipline Review Group (FDRG), composed of CCC and CSU faculty, opened the Business Administration Transfer Model Curriculum (TMC) for review. After extensive discussion and research, the Business Administration FDRG finalized revisions to the Business Administration TMC. The modifications to the TMC are intended to improve student preparation for transfer and success for upper division coursework in a major deemed similar by the CSU.

The revised TMC is now posted on the C-ID website. Now that the TMC has been finalized, according to the ICW TMC Review and Revision Criteria document on the C-ID website, colleges must revise their existing ADTs to be effective for the 2022-23 catalog year.

Faculty Members Needed
